

My family and friends rely on K-LOVE to provide the type of music and information that will serve our community positively. Their programming is very positive and encouraging and would be sorely missed by this entire broadcasting area if it were replaced by an LPFM broadcaster with possibly objectionable programming.